

CopyPaste

Save time along with the elimination of errors during the transfer of information

CopyPaste takes exported data from other sources and copies it into Signature Transaction Entry for a quick way to record new transactions tied to Jobs and Service Calls.

Data is validated during the paste routine; however, a data validation report will be printed notifying you if there are any issues

