

Use email to create a quoted Service Call in Signature

Enables technicians to email the customer name, material, equipment, labor or other costs to generate a quoted service call

Automatically notifies the Technician when the new call has been successfully created in Signature and is now visible via MobileTech

Reduces dependency on back-office support

Ensures the amount quoted to the customer matches what is billed