

JEHold

When you want to HOLD a transaction and not allow it to post.

You have the ability to put a transaction on hold so it won't post until you're ready

Won't allow transaction level posting or batch posting

You will see a visual indication on the Transaction Entry window

You have the ability to password protect this functionality